CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 (Purpose)

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS The purpose of this Ordinance is to provide for matters delegated by the Act on the Maintenance and Improvement of Urban Areas and Dwelling Conditions for Residents and by the Enforcement Decree and the Enforcement Rules of the aforesaid Act and other matters necessary for the enforcement thereof. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4330, Dec. 26, 2007; Ordinance No. 4550, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 2 (Definitions)

The terms used in this Ordinance shall be defined as follows: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4601, Dec. 26, 2007; Ordinance No. 4657, Jul. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4686, Sep. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 30, 2010; Ordinance No. 5102, May 26, 2011; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5417, Dec. 31, 2012; Ordinance No. 5701, May 14, 2014; Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>

1. The term "specified unauthorized building" means an unauthorized building existing as of January 24, 1989 under Article 5 of the Addenda to the Enforcement Rule of the Act on Acquisition and Compensation for Land, etc. for Public Works (Ordinance of the Ministry of Construction and Transportation No. 344);
2. The term "new unauthorized building" means an unauthorized building that is not a specified unauthorized building under subparagraph 1;
3. The term "base date of the plan for management and disposal" means the day on which a period set for the application for parcelling-out sale under Article 46 (1) of the Act expires;
4. The term "value of rights" means the gross value of a pre-existing parcel of land or other property, calculated in accordance with Article 27 (3) as of the base date of a plan for management and disposal;
5. The term "density of units" means an index indicating the degree of concentration of buildings and refers to the number of buildings erected per hectare in a rearrangement zone, which shall be calculated according to the following standards:
 - (a) In cases of a collective housing building that has a structure designed for separate dwelling of each household and the ownership of which is partitioned by housing units, a unit on the floor with the greatest number of units shall be deemed one unit, and the number of units on other floors shall be excluded in the calculation;
 - (b) New unauthorized buildings shall be excluded from the calculation of the number of units of buildings;
 - (c) The calculation shall be based on an area from which the area occupied by parks that remain or are completely constructed and schools that remain in a rearranged zone are excluded;
 - (d) Where a separate house or a multi-family dwelling is converted into a multi-household house after the completion of the building, the calculation shall be based on the number of units existing before the conversion, irrespective of the registration of partitioned ownership;
 - (e) Where it is necessary to relocate an existing factory as part of a rearrangement project in a quasi-industrial area, the building site for the factory and buildings of the factory, out of the area in the rearrangement zone, shall be excluded from the calculation;
 - (f) In cases of a non-residential building, 90 square meters of the building area shall be deemed one unit, and any figure below the decimal point shall be cut off in the calculation;
6. The term "change of the project implementation method" means changing the implementation method of a housing redevelopment project pursuant to Article 80 (1) of the Act or Article 14 of the Addenda to the Act on the Maintenance and Improvement of Urban Areas and Dwelling Conditions for Residents as enacted by Act No. 6852;

7. The term "head of a houseless household" means the head of a household under subparagraph 9 of Article 2 of the Rules on Housing Supply;
8. The term "building without approval for use" means a building practically completed with a building permit granted pursuant to relevant Acts and subordinate statutes but with no approval for use, approval of completion, or similar;
9. The term "extremely small parcel of land" means a parcel of land with an area of less than 90 square meters;
10. The term "house-to-Road Ratio" means an indicator for determining whether a rearranged infrastructure under subparagraph 1 (e) of Table 1 attached and related to Article 10 (1) of the Decree is insufficient, which shall be a ratio calculated by dividing the total number of buildings on a building site abutting by four meters long or more onto a road with a width of four meters or more respectively by the total number of buildings in a rearrangement zone: Provided, That in the case of a road extended by 35 meters or more to a dead end, the width shall be six meters;
11. The term "base date of determination of rights" means the day on which public notice under Article 4 (6) of the Act is given, or the day specified by the Mayor separately after the establishment of a basic plan but before the designation and public notification of a rearrangement zone in order to curb speculative investments, when houses and other buildings are supplied as part of a rearrangement project pursuant to Article 50-2 of the Act.
12. The term "common-use facilities" under subparagraph 3 of Article 4 of the Enforcement Decree of the Act on the Maintenance and Improvement of Urban Areas and Dwelling Conditions for Residents (hereinafter referred to as the "Decree") mean the following facilities:
- (a) Facilities necessary for the safety of a village and common use and management, such as management offices, security offices, and facilities for security and crime prevention;
 - (b) Sports facilities for residents and welfare facilities for community activities of residents, such as libraries;
 - (c) Facilities necessary for the improvement of environment of villages, including facilities for collection and disposal of waste.

Article 3 (Decrepit or Substandard Buildings)

- (1) The standards for the determination of whether a building is decrepit or substandard under Article 2 (3) 1 of the Decree are as follows: <Amended by Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5417, Dec. 31, 2012; Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>
1. Collective housing buildings:
- (a) Collective housing buildings made of reinforced concrete, steel-framed concrete, steel-framed reinforced concrete, or steel-structure: As prescribed in Table 1 attached hereto;
 - (b) Collective housing buildings other than those specified in item (a) above: 20 years;
2. Buildings other than collective housing buildings:
- (a) Buildings made of reinforced concrete, steel-framed concrete, steel-framed reinforced concrete, or steel-structured: 40 years (excluding detached houses under subparagraph 1 of Table 1 attached to the Enforcement Decree of the Building Act);
 - (b) Buildings other than those specified in item (a) above: 20 years.
- (2) Deleted. <by Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>
- (3) A decrepit or substandard building defined under the former part of Article 2 (2) 1 of the Decree means a building erected before August 11, 2009 on an extremely small parcel of land not appropriate for a building site. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5080, Mar. 17, 2011; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>
- (4) The classification and structure of a building with no approval for use for a specific use shall conform to the details of the relevant building permit, and the year in which the property tax, water rate, or electric rate begins to be levied or billed shall be deemed the completion year. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4657, Jul. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4686, Sep. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5080, Mar. 17, 2011>

CHAPTER II DESIGNATION OF REARRANGEMENT ZONES

Article 4 (Requirements for Designation of Rearrangement Zones Requiring Formulation of Rearrangement Plan)

- CHAPTER II DESIGNATION OF REARRANGEMENT ZONES(1) The requirements for the designation of a rearrangement zone for which a rearrangement plan shall be formulated as delegated under subparagraph 6 of Table 1 attached and related to Article 10 (1) of the Decree are as follows: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4359, Jun. 1, 2006; Ordinance No. 4657, Jul. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4686, Sep. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5417, Dec. 31, 2012>
1. A residential environment improvement zone shall be any of the following areas, in which the density of units shall be at least 80:
- (a) An area in which the number of decrepit or substandard buildings amounts to not less than 60 percent of the total number of buildings therein;
 - (b) An area in which the House-to-Road Ratio is not more than 20 percent;
 - (c) An area in which at least 50 percent of parcels of land are extremely small parcels;
 - (d) Deleted; <by Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010>
2. A housing redevelopment zone shall be any of the following areas of at least 10,000 square meters (or 5,000 square meters, if the Urban Planning Committee of Seoul Special Metropolitan Government approves as a result of deliberation under Article 4 (4) of the Act):

- (a) An area in which at least 40 percent of parcels of land are extremely small parcels;
- (b) An area in which the House-to-Road Ratio is not more than 40 percent (or an area in which the ratio is not more than 50 percent, if the area is a prospective housing redevelopment zone on the basic plan for the rearrangement of urban and residential environments, publicly notified pursuant to Article 3 (6) of the Act before this Ordinance enters into force);
- (c) An area with a density of not less than 60 units.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if the Seoul Special Metropolitan City Urban Planning Committee concludes as a result of deliberation under the latter part of subparagraph 5 of Table 1 attached and related to Article 10 (1) of the Decree that it is necessary in making building sites orthogonal and securing infrastructure efficiently, an area extended to not more than 110/100 of the originally contemplated rearrangement zone may be designated as a rearrangement zone. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010, Ordinance No. 5417, Dec. 31, 2012>

(3) Deleted. <by Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>

(4) "Area specified by City/Do Ordinance" under subparagraph 3 (d) of Attached Table 1 and related to Article 10 (1) of the Decree means an area of more than 10,000 square meters: Provided, That if the area of the existing housing complex is 10,000 square meters or more, the foregoing shall apply only where it is found necessary for making building sites orthogonal or for efficiently securing infrastructure according to the results of deliberation by the Urban Planning Committee of Seoul Metropolitan Government. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012; Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>

(5) An urban environment rearrangement zone in station areas under subparagraph 4 (e) of Attached Table 1, which concerns Article 10 (1) of the Decree, shall be established in areas falling under the following: <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>

1. Station areas mean areas located below the central point of a zone in accordance with the central place system of the urban master plan referred to in subparagraph 2 of Article 2 of the National Land Planning and Utilization Act out of the areas which are within a radius of 500 meters from the center of a railway station (the central point of each platform);

2. Notwithstanding subparagraph 1, areas falling under any of the following shall be excluded; Provided, That this shall be apply when it is recognized that there is an unavoidable reason after the deliberation by the Urban Planning Committee of Seoul Special Metropolitan Government:

- (a) Areas adjacent to exclusive residential areas, urban natural parks, neighborhood parks, natural landscape districts, and the highest-altitude districts (excluding the highest-altitude districts near Gimpo International Airport);
- (b) Focused landscape management areas under a landscape plan referred to in Article 7 of the Landscape Act, hill areas, and zones subject to the Han River landscape formation standards;

3. The standards for determining the degree of deterioration of specific use areas after the formulation of a rearrangement plan shall be as follows:

- (a) In the case of quasi-residential areas, when structures in whose case no less than 20 years has passed since their use inspection account for no less than 1/2 of the total number of structures in a planned site;
- (b) In the case of Type 3 general residential areas, when structures in whose case no less than 20 years has passed since their use inspection account for no less than 2/3 of the total number of structures in a planned site, or when structures in whose case no less than 20 years has passed since their use inspection account for no less than 1/2 of the total number of structures in a planned site with multi-household houses and multi-family houses of which construction was completed no less than 15 years ago representing no less than 3/10 of the total number of structures there.

Article 4-2 (Provision of Information and Hearings)

The Mayor of the Seoul Metropolitan Government (hereinafter referred to as the "Mayor") and the head of Gu may provide landowners, etc. with information necessary for decision-making and may hear opinions from them.

1. A change in the name of a rearrangement zone;
2. A change in the decision to remove sharp street corners in a rearrangement zone pursuant to Article 14 of the Rule on the Standards for the Decision-Making, Structure, and Installation of Planned Urban Facilities;
3. A change in the plan for the improvement and amelioration of existing buildings under Article 13 (1) 3 of the Decree;
4. A change in the boundaries of rearrangement zones or districts for the adjustment of mutual borders, where rearrangement zones abut each other (including districts where a project is implemented by dividing a rearrangement zone into implementation districts);
5. A change for the correction of an area due to a simple error without a change in the boundaries of the rearrangement zone or district;
6. A change in a plan for the subdivision of a project implementation district or in subdivisions, with no change in the plan regarding the main use, the building-to-land ratio, the floor area ratio, or the height of a building under Article 4 (1) 5 of the Act;
7. A change in rental housing or the construction ratio for each size of rental housing unit within the extent publicly notified by the Minister of Land, Infrastructure and Transport pursuant to Article 4-2 of the Act;
8. A change for increasing the number of housing units to be built by not more than thirty percent or for reducing the number of such housing units by not more than ten percent, within the scope of the building plan specified in the rearrangement plan;
9. An inevitable change in the rearrangement plan due to an amendment of the Building Act or other relevant Act or subordinate statute or a change in the building plan as a result of the deliberation by the building committee organized pursuant to Article 4 of the aforesaid Act.

(2) Minor modifications at the disposal of the head of Gu with respect to a rearrangement plan are as follows: <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No. 5563, Aug. 1, 2013>

1. A change of the area of a rearrangement zone by less than five percent under subparagraph 1 of Article 12 of the Decree;
2. A change of the size of the rearranged infrastructure by less than five percent under subparagraph 2 of Article 12 of the Decree;
3. A matter under any provision of subparagraphs 3 through 6, 8, and 11 of Article 12 of the Decree;
4. A change reducing the building-to-land ratio or the floor area ratio of a building or increasing the building-to-land ratio or the floor area ratio of a building by less than five percent pursuant to subparagraph 7 of Article 12 of the Decree;
5. A change of lowering the maximum height of a building pursuant to subparagraph 7-2 of Article 12 of the Decree;
6. A matter under any subparagraph of paragraph (1).

Article 8 (Contents of Rearrangement Plan and Detailed Standards therefor)

(1) "Other matters specified by City/Do Ordinance for the smooth implementation of rearrangement projects" in Article 13 (1) 9 of the Decree refers to contents of a rearrangement plan and detailed standards for rearrangement plans. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010>

(2) Contents of a rearrangement plan are as follows: <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5417, Dec. 31, 2012; Ordinance No. 5701, May 14, 2014>

1. A plan for households or subdivisions;
2. A plan for the construction of rental housing units (applicable only where collective housing units are built in a general residential area, a quasi-residential area with houses, a commercial area, or a quasi-industrial area through a project for the rearrangement of urban environment, and the head of Gu may formulate a plan for the construction of rental housing units in a rearrangement zone in the neighborhood of a university to supply such housing units to university students);

3. Matters concerning the development of residents' sources of income (limited to projects for the improvement of residential environments);

4. Results of the environmental review (Article 27 (2) of the National Land Planning and Utilization Act shall apply mutatis mutandis);

5. Current status of existing trees and a plan for the utilization of such trees;

6. Plans for population and expropriation of houses;

7. Plans for invigoration of communities of residents for the maintenance of dwelling conditions (applicable only to projects for maintenance of dwelling conditions);

8. Plans for the conservation and utilization of historical and cultural resources within a zone such as old roads, old waterways, etc.

(3) "Detailed standards for rearrangement plans" refers to the following matters: <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5792, Jan. 2, 2015>

1. Common provisions:

(a) In principle, no rearrangement zone shall include any existing park or greenbelt: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply where it is necessary to restore the functions of a park or greenbelt, where necessary to repair a building in a park or greenbelt, or where necessary to improve the use of land;

(b) The plan for a rearrangement zone in which collective housing buildings shall be erected shall be established in conformity with the standards for the installation of ancillary facilities, welfare facilities, etc. under the Regulation on Housing Construction Standards;

(c) The plan for the repair and amelioration of existing buildings under Article 13 (1) 3 of the Decree shall be established separately for the maintenance, renovation, new construction after removal, removal and relocation, etc., taking into consideration of the age, specific use, structure, size, and location of buildings, whether authorized or unauthorized, and the degree of decrepit or substandard conditions;

(d) If necessary, a rearrangement zone shall be divided into subdivisions for building sites of religious institutions, building sites of welfare facilities to be parcelled out for sale, and building sites of rental housing units to be erected in the rearrangement zone;

(e) The scheduled period of the implementation of a rearrangement project under Article 4 (1) 7 of the Act shall be determined within four years from the date on which the designation of the rearrangement zone is publicly notified, taking into consideration the period that each project implementor needs for preparing an application for authorization for the implementation of the project;

2. The rearrangement plan for the project for the improvement of urban environments:

(a) In principle, the building plan shall be a multi-purpose building plan for the restoration of distinct characteristics of the rearrangement zone and the functions of the city center and shall include the following matters:

(i) A plan for the layout of buildings in accordance with the planned construction line for each district, a plan for public open spaces, a landscaping plan, a plan for the location of the main and secondary entrances of buildings in each district and the flow of pedestrians, a plan for the location of the entrances and exits of buildings for vehicles in each district and the flow of vehicles;

(ii) A skyline plan for the rearrangement zone, taking into consideration the buildings in the neighborhood;

(iii) A scenery plan for minimizing impacts on the scenic view of surroundings, if there is any cultural heritage or natural geographical feature;

(iv) A aesthetic design plan, a plan for community support facilities, a plan for the installation of public facilities, and a plan for social mixing, if rental housing units for long-term lease on a deposit basis are built;

(b) The maximum height of each building in an urban environment rearrangement zone shall be regulated by the standards prescribed in the basic plan under Article 3 of the Act;

(c) The sizes of rental housing units that shall be built in a housing redevelopment project publicly notified by the Minister of Land, Infrastructure and Transport and the construction ratio of such a project shall apply mutatis mutandis to the sizes of rental housing units that shall be built when collective housing buildings for not less than 200 households are built in a general residential area and the construction ratio of such a project;

(d) As regards the sizes of rental housing units that shall be built when collective housing buildings for not less than 200 households are built in a quasi-residential area, a quasi-industrial area, or a commercial area, each rental housing unit shall have an exclusive area of not less than 40 square meters, and the construction ratio shall not be less than the ratio calculated using the following formula: (17 percent of the number of all housing units to be built in the area or 10 percent of the gross area of the residential buildings) x (Ratio of the gross area of the residential buildings to the gross area of all buildings to be built in the area);

(e) When collective housing buildings are built, housing units in the standard national housing size shall not be less than 60 percent of the total number of housing units and shall not be less than 50 percent of the gross area of all housing units;

(f) If the floor area ratio is relaxed in consideration of the construction of housing units for long-term lease on a deposit basis, at least 50 percent of the relaxed floor area ratio shall be supplied for the housing units for long-term lease on a deposit basis.

Article 15-4 (Ratio of Subsidized Expenses of Promotion Committees, Method of Subsidization, etc.)

(1) "Expenses specified by City/Do Ordinance" in Article 27-3 (1) 3 of the Decree mean expenses incurred by a promotion committee in carrying out the following business affairs after the approval of the promotion committee within budgetary limits approved at the general meeting of residents:

1. Business affairs specified in Article 14 (1) of the Act;
2. Business affairs specified in Article 22 of the Decree.

(2) A subsidy shall be determined following the results of the verification conducted by the committee for verification of expenses incurred by promotion committees under Article 15-5 (hereafter referred to as the "verification committee" in this Article) in accordance with the following guidelines for calculation:

1. Personnel expenses: An amount not more than the average expenses entered in the cleanup system under subparagraph 4 of Article 43;
2. Service fees for plans for the management and improvement for a rearrangement project and architectural design: An amount below the average expenses contracted under public administration after the introduction of public administration (as of July 16, 2010);
3. Other expenses incurred by the promotion committee for each item of business affair (Form 8 attached hereto): Provided, That expenses excessively incurred for any item of business affair shall be adjusted through verification.

(3) In cases falling under the proviso to paragraph (6), the head of the competent Gu may grant a subsidy for not more than 70 percent of the amount determined according to the results of the verification by the committee for review of expenses incurred by promotion committees under Article 15-6.

(4) An application for subsidization shall be filed by the person appointed as representative from among members of the promotion committee, the approval of which has been revoked (hereinafter referred to as the "representative"), and the representative shall file an application for subsidization for expenses incurred by the promotion committee in Form 7 attached hereto with the head of the competent Gu within six months from the date on which the revocation of approval of the promotion committee is publicly notified under Article 16-2 (5) of the Act, accompanied with the following documents:

1. A detailed statement of expenses incurred by the promotion committee for each item of business affair and evidential documents;
2. The current status of interested parties involved in expenses incurred by the promotion committee (the names, contact information, etc. of creditors shall be included) and evidential documents;
3. The resolution on the application for subsidization for expenses incurred by the promotion committee and minutes of meeting (representative, the bank account number for payment, the current status of creditors, etc.).

(5) Upon receipt of an application under paragraph (4), the head of Gu shall publish the contents of the application (paragraph (4) 1 and 2) through two or more daily newspapers and the web-site and official bulletin of the competent autonomous Gu and shall notify interested parties involved in expenses incurred by the promotion committee (hereinafter referred to as "interested parties") thereof in writing.

(6) The head of Gu shall determine the amount of a subsidy according to the results of the verification by the verification committee after completing the public notification and individual notification in writing under paragraph (5) and shall notify the representative, members of the dissolved promotion committee, and interested parties thereof in writing: Provided, That the representative may file an objection within 20 days from the day on which he/she is notified of the determination of the subsidy, and the head of the competent Gu shall notify the representative of the results of the verification by the committee for review of expenses incurred by promotion committees under Article 15-6, if reasonable grounds exist.

(7) The representative shall file an application for payment of a subsidy within 20 says from the day on which he/she is notified of the determination of the subsidy under paragraph (6), accompanied with a copy of the bankbook under paragraph (4) 3. In such cases, the head of the competent Gu shall report to the Mayor on the application for the subsidy.

(8) Upon receipt of an application for payment of a subsidy under paragraph (7), the head of the competent Gu shall publicly notify the payment plan, including the date of payment, through the web-site and official bulletin of the competent autonomous Gu and shall remit it to the bank account number designated in the application ten days after the last day of the public notification.

(9) When the head of Gu subsidizes expenses incurred by a promotion committee, the Mayor may fully or partially subsidize the head of the competent Gu for the subsidy, notwithstanding Article 9 of the Seoul Metropolitan Government Ordinance on Subsidies.

Article 20 (Construction Ratio and Specific Use of Small Housing Units)

(1) The ratio prescribed by City/Do Ordinance in Article 30-3 (2) 1 and 2 of the Act means 50/100 of the floor area ratio calculated by subtracting the floor area ratio specified in the rearrangement plan from the statutory maximum floor area ratio. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

(2) Small housing units acquired under Article 30-3 (6) of the Act shall be used as rental housing units or housing units for long-term lease on a deposit basis. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

(3) To be qualified for the tenant of a housing unit for long-term lease on a deposit basis pursuant to paragraph (2), a person shall be the head of a houseless household residing in Seoul Metropolitan City, but matters concerning the selection of tenants may be prescribed by the Seoul Metropolitan Government Rules on Supply and Management of Housing Units for Long-Term Lease on

Deposit Basis. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

Article 21 (Plan for Construction of Rental Housing Units)

(1) Each project implementor shall include a plan for securing building sites for rental housing units and the development of the building sites in the plan for the construction of rental housing units under subparagraph 5 of Article 30 of the Act and shall file an application for authorization for the implementation of the project, along with a list of persons eligible for the supply of the rental housing units. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

(2) If necessary for the implementation of an urban environment rearrangement project, measures for tenants shall be taken in compliance with the following guidelines: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. When the head of the competent Gu authorizes the implementation of the project for a rearrangement zone or district in which tenants wish to buy a commercial space or a collective housing unit in a building newly built as part of the rearrangement project, he/she may recommend to sell the reserved area under Article 31 to tenants under Article 35 (1) 1 (hereinafter referred to as "qualified tenants") preferentially, prior to third parties;
2. As to qualification requirements for tenants eligible for the preferential parcelling-out sale under subparagraph 1, Article 35 shall apply mutatis mutandis;
3. If the implementation of a project is authorized under the condition that the project implementor shall sell the reserved area under Article 31 to tenants preferentially, prior to third parties, the project implementor shall include such condition in the details of public notice regarding the application for parcelling-out sale under Article 47 (1) of the Decree.

Article 22 (Construction of Rental Housing Units, etc.)

(1) Each project implementor may build rental housing units and sell them to the Mayor or designate the SH Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation") as an implementor to have the Corporation build rental housing units. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

(2) The head of the competent Gu shall consult with Corporation about the following matters with regard to the plan for the construction of rental housing units to be built by a project implementor under paragraph (1): <Amended on Jul. 30, 2009>

1. The plan for the construction of rental housing units to be built in the rearrangement zone;
2. The list of persons eligible for dwelling in the rental housing units;
3. Costs for the construction of rental housing units and a report on the parcels of land included.

(3) When the Corporation builds rental housing units pursuant to paragraph (1), it shall report to the Mayor on the following matters: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. The scale of the construction of rental housing units in the rearrangement zone and a building plan;
2. Costs of the construction of rental housing units and a report on parcels of land included;
3. Current status of dwelling in rental housing units in the neighborhood.

Article 23 (Purchase of Rental Housing Units, etc.)

A contract for the purchase of rental housing units to be built by a project implementor pursuant to Article 22 (1) and the payment of the purchase price shall be made in accordance with the following subparagraphs: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. A contract for the purchase (hereinafter referred to as "purchase contract") of rental housing units (including building sites and ancillary welfare facilities; the same shall apply hereinafter) shall be made between the Mayor and the project implementor;
2. A purchase contract shall be made at the time the progress of the construction of rental housing units reaches or exceeds 20 percent. In such cases, the progress of construction shall be deemed 20 percent when frameworks for not less than one-half of all stories are completed;
3. The purchase price shall be an amount determined at the time the management and disposal plan under Article 48 (1) of the Act is approved with regard to the rearrangement project; <
4. The purchase price shall be paid by down payment, interim payments, and balance in the following manner:
 - (a) 20 percent of the total amount shall be paid as a down payment at the time the purchase contract is made;
 - (b) Interim payments shall be paid in four installments according to the progress of construction, but 15 percent of the total amount shall be paid at each time when the progress of construction reaches or exceeds 35 percent, 50 percent, 65 percent, and 80 percent, respectively;
 - (c) 15 percent of the total amount shall be paid as part of the balance after the completion approval under Article 52 of the Act, and the remainder shall be paid on or after the day on which public notice of conveyance is given pursuant to Article 54 of the Act;
5. Notwithstanding subparagraph 2, the Mayor may adjust the time to make a contract within budgetary limits, if necessary for boosting rearrangement projects.

(2) When it is intended to build rental housing units by designating the Corporation as a project implementor pursuant to Article 22 (1), the contract for the purchase of building sites for the rental housing units and the payment of the price shall be made in the following manner: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. The purchase contract for building sites of rental housing units shall be made between the Mayor and the project implementor

- after the development of building sites in the rearrangement zone is completed;
2. The purchase prices shall be the price calculated in accordance with Article 29 (1);
 3. The purchase price shall be paid by down payment, interim payment, and balance in the following manner:
 - (a) 20 percent of the total amount shall be paid as the down payment at the time the purchase contract for building sites is made;
 - (b) The interim payment shall be 75 percent of the total amount, which shall be paid after the project implementor completes the survey on the current status of building sites of rental housing units and transfers the results of the survey;
 - (c) The balance shall be paid on or after the day on which public notice of conveyance is given pursuant to Article 54 of the Act.
- (3) "The use specified by City/Do Ordinance" in Article 30-3 (6) of the Act means the utilization for rental housing and long-term lease on a deposit basis. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 24 (Procedure for Application for Parcelling-Out Sale, etc.)

- (1) "Other matters specified by City/Do Ordinance" in Article 47 (1) 11 of the Decree means the following matters: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>
1. Notice about the application for parcelling-out sale;
 2. The date of scheduled demolition and relocation.
- (2) A person who intends to file an application for parcelling-out sale in accordance with Article 46 (2) of the Act shall submit an application for parcelling-out sale under Article 47 (1) 3 of the Decree along with the following documents: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>
1. Details of the pre-existing ownership of land or buildings;
 2. Documents proving the right to file an application for parcelling-out sale;
 3. Documents proving the qualification for the application for parcelling-out sale, where the qualification is expressly prescribed by this Ordinance or articles of association or similar under subparagraph 11 of Article 2 of the Act;
 4. A written opinion about the desired building site or building and its size among building sites or buildings on parcelling-out sale within the limitations set by the standards under the management and disposal plan.

Article 25 (Preparation Methods for Application for Approval of Management and Disposal Plan, etc.)

Each project implementor shall prepare an application for approval of the management and disposal plan under Article 48 (1) of the Act in accordance with the following methods: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. Plans for parcelling-out sale under Article 48 (1) 1 of the Act shall include the following matters:
 - (a) The survey report and drawings of the property subject to the management and disposal plan;
 - (b) The details of building sites for rental housing units, the value and the disposition method of the building sites, the list of tenants eligible for the supply of rental housing units (limited to a rearrangement zone in which rental housing units are built);
 - (c) Drawings of the land prearranged for land substitution;
 - (d) Pre-existing cadastral maps of land or drawings of forest;
2. A copy of the resolution of the general meeting on the management and disposal plan under Article 24 (3) 10 of the Act and each copy of applications for parcelling-out sale (including reports on rights) under Article 46 (1) of the Act shall be attached thereto;
3. Other documents proving the details of the management and disposal plan shall be attached thereto.

Article 26 (Guidelines, etc. for Management and Disposal of Housing Redevelopment and Urban Environment Rearrangement Projects)

The management and disposal plan for a housing redevelopment project or an urban environment rearrangement project under Article 48 (1) of the Act shall be formulated in compliance with the following guidelines: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012>

1. The area of a pre-existing parcel of land owned by a person shall be based on the official cadastral register for each parcel of land under subparagraph 19 of Article 2 of the Act on Land Survey, Waterway Survey and Cadastral Records (or the certificate of land prearranged for land substitution where the method of project implementation is changed) as of the base date of the management and disposal plan; Provided, That if a parcel of land is jointly owned by a multiple number of persons, the area shall be based on shares in joint-ownership on the real estate register (or the certificate of land prearranged for land substitution where the project implementation method is changed);
2. The preemptive rights arising from the occupation of a parcel of state-owned or public land shall be recognized in accordance with the results of the cadastral survey conducted along the boundaries of the parcel of land, as provided for in relevant Acts, subordinate statutes, articles of association, etc.;
3. The area of a pre-existing building owned by a person shall be based on the building register for each building as of the base date of the management and disposal plan, but the area of a part built in violation of any Act or subordinate statute shall be excluded therefrom: Provided, That the area may be based on property tax imposition records or the results of survey, if articles of association, etc. prescribe expressly otherwise;
4. The ownership of a pre-existing parcel of land or other property shall be based on the real estate register (or the certificate of land prearranged for land substitution where the project implementation method is changed) as of the base date of the management and disposal plan, the date of acquisition of the ownership shall be based on the filing date on the real estate register: Provided, That the ownership of an specified unauthorized building (including a building with no approval) shall be based on the certificate of a specified unauthorized building, issued by the head of the competent Gu or Dong, or other materials proving ownership;

5. A person who has a right arising from the occupation of a parcel of state-owned or public land shall be determined by the right recognized pursuant to subparagraph 2 as one arising from the occupation;

6. Where the head of the competent Gu recommends an appraiser under Article 48 (5) and (6) of the Act, or where an appraiser under the Public Notice of Values and Appraisal of Real Estate Act conducts an appraisal, with respect to state-owned or public property included in the building sites under Article 2 (1) 1 of the Building Act, such appraisal shall be conducted in accordance with Articles 32, 48 (1) 4, and 66 (5) of the Act.

Article 27 (Eligibility for Parcelling-Out Sale of Housing Redevelopment Project, etc.)

(1) In order to be eligible for the parcelling-out sale of collective housing units to be built under a housing redevelopment project pursuant to Article 52 (1) 3 of the Decree, a person shall be a landowner under any of the following subparagraphs as of the base date of the management and disposal plan: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No.5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5102, May 26, 2011>

1. A person who owns a housing unit (including a building specified by an association's articles of association among specified unauthorized buildings used for dwelling);

2. A parcelling-out sale applicant who owns a pre-existing parcel of land with a total area of not less than 90 square meters;

3. A parcelling-out sale applicant, the value of whose rights reaches or exceeds the estimated amount of one collective housing unit in the minimum size for the parcelling-out sale: Provided, That the value of rights may be calculated by aggregating the values of rights held by all members of a household, if parcelling-out sale applicants are members of one and the same household;

4. A person who has a parcel of land designated as a substitute parcel of land according to the project implementation method before changed, if the project implementation method is changed. In such cases, the provisions of subparagraphs 1 through 3 need not apply;

5. A person who received compensation for a pre-existing house (including a building used in fact for dwelling) where an infrastructure facility is to be installed pursuant to a renewal facilitation plan pursuant to Article 11 (4) of the Special Act on the Promotion of Urban Renewal.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a multiple number of parcelling-out sale applicants shall be deemed a single parcelling-out sale applicant in any of the following cases: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4657, Jul. 30, 2008; Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5701, May 14, 2014>

1. Where a separate house or a multi-family dwelling is converted into a multi-household dwelling after the base date of the determination of rights;

2. Where several parcelling-out sale applicants belong to one household pursuant to Article 19 (1) 2 of the Act;

3. Where one house or a parcel of land is owned by several persons: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply when a share in a parcel of land that has been jointly owned since before the base date of the determination of rights falls under paragraph (1) 2 or when its value of rights falls under paragraph (1) 3;

4. Where one parcel of land is divided into several parcels after the base date of the determination of rights;

5. Where a parcel of land and a house that were situated within the boundaries of one building site and were owned by one and the same person are separated after the completion of the building and the parcel of land and the building are separately owned:

Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to a person who has owned a parcel of not less than 90 square meters since before the base date of the determination of rights;

6. Where a new building is built on a vacant lot, or a multi-household house or other collective housing units are built after demolishing an existing building, after the base date of the determination of rights and consequently the number of landowners increases.

(3) A parcel of land that falls under any of the following subparagraphs shall not be included in the calculation of the total area of a pre-existing parcel of land under paragraph (1) 2 and the value of a right under paragraph (1) 3: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010>

1. A parcel of land where a part of the parcel of land or a share in the joint ownership of the parcel of land is acquired after the base date of the determination of rights, if the land within the boundaries of one building site under Article 2 (1) 1 of the Building Act consists of a multiple number of parcels;

2. A parcel of land separated from a building thereon and acquired separately after the base date of the determination of rights, if the building occupies the parcel of land within the boundaries of one building site;

3. A parcel of land where a part of the parcel of land or a share in the ownership of the parcel of land is acquired after the base date of the determination of rights by dividing the parcel of land into several parts.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (3), all persons who have a substitute parcel of land designated may be deemed independent parcelling-out sale applicants respectively regardless of the area of the substitute parcel and whether the substitute parcel of land is jointly owned, if the project implementation method is changed. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 28 (Eligibility for Parcelling-Out Sale in Projects for Reconstruction of Separate Houses, etc.)

(1) In order to be eligible for the parcelling-out sale of collective housing units built by a project for the reconstruction of separate houses pursuant to the proviso to Article 52 (2) 1 of the Decree, a person shall be a landowner under any of the following subparagraphs as of the base date of the management and disposal plan: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010>

1. A person who owns a house and the land attached to the house among pre-existing buildings;
 2. A parcelling-out sale applicant, the value of whose rights reaches or exceeds the estimated amount of one collective housing unit in the minimum size for the parcelling-out sale: Provided, That the value of rights may be calculated by aggregating the values of rights held by all members of a household, if parcelling-out sale applicants are members of one and the same household;
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a multiple number of parcelling-out sale applicants shall be deemed a single parcelling-out sale applicant in any of the following cases: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010>
1. Where a separate house or a multi-family dwelling is converted into a multi-household house after the base date of the determination of rights;
 2. Where a multiple number of parcelling-out sale applicants belong to one household pursuant to Article 19 (1) 2 of the Act;
 3. Where one house and the land attached to the house are owned by a multiple number of persons;
 4. Where a new building is built on a vacant lot, or a multi-household house or other collective housing units are built after demolishing an existing building, after the base date of the determination of rights, and consequently the number of landowners increases.

Article 29 (Calculation of Estimated Value of Building Sites or Buildings to be Sold by Parcelling-Out Sale)

(1) The value of a building site or a building to be sold by parcelling-out sale as a result of a housing redevelopment project under Article 48 (5) 1 of the Act shall be estimated by calculating the arithmetic mean of the amounts appraised by two or more appraisers under the Public Notice of Values and Appraisal of Real Estate Act (hereinafter referred to as "appraisers"): Provided, That the following guidelines shall apply to collective housing units (including shares in the joint ownership of a building site; the same shall apply hereinafter): <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

1. Items that shall be added to the construction cost and the value of attached parcels of land under Article 54-2 (2) of the Decree with regard to the transfer price of redeveloped rental housing units shall be determined through negotiations in accordance with the Rule on the Calculation of the Parcelling-Out Sale Price of Collective Housing Units and Table 1 attached to the Enforcement Rule of the Rental Housing Act: Provided, That if a project implementor chooses to build rental housing units, such as housing units for long-term lease on a deposit basis, to have the floor area ratio relaxed, the project implementor shall provide the land annexed to the building site to the transferee without consideration.
2. The value of collective housing units that do not fall under subparagraph 1 shall be determined by calculating the arithmetic mean of the values appraised by two or more appraisers, based on the ground presented by the project implementor for the calculation of cost (referring to the price of building sites, construction cost, and other expenses incurred in the implementation of the project). In such cases, the opinions of two or more appraisers recommended by the head of the competent Gu shall be taken into consideration.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) 1 and 2, the value of the building site of rental housing units shall be estimated in accordance with the following guidelines: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. The state-owned or public land within a rearrangement zone shall be sold preferentially to persons who hold the preemptive right arising from the occupation of the land, and the costs of the development of building sites secured with the remaining area for rental housing shall be determined as the costs of the development of housing sites under paragraph (1) 1;
2. If the area secured in accordance with subparagraph 1 is insufficient for the building sites for rental housing units, the value of the area of state-owned or public land preferentially sold to persons who hold the preemptive right arising from the occupation of the land shall be the amount calculated by adding the costs of the development of housing sites under subparagraph 1 to the amount determined by applying the arithmetic mean of sale prices of the state-owned or public land within the rearrangement zone;
3. If the area secured in accordance with subparagraphs 1 and 2 is insufficient for building sites for rental housing units, the value of the remaining area shall be the amount calculated by adding the costs of the development of housing sites under subparagraph 1 to the amount obtained by applying the arithmetic mean unit price of previous land prices of privately owned parcels of land within the rearrangement zone.

(3) The estimated value of the building sites or buildings to be sold by parcelling-out sale as a result of an urban environment rearrangement project under Article 48 (5) 1 of the Act shall be calculated with the arithmetic mean of the values appraised by two or more appraisers: Provided, That as to construction plans, an efficiency index (referring to an index that indicates an efficiency rate that is taken into consideration in appraisal according to the location, direction, specific floor, and specific use of each unit of a building to be sold by parcelling-out sale) may be applied concurrently. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 30 (Guidelines for Housing Supply, etc.)

- (1) The standards for the housing supply by housing redevelopment projects and housing reconstruction projects under Article 52 (1) 8 and (2) 1 of the Decree are as follows: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5654, Jan. 9, 2014>
1. The value of rights held by a person shall be equivalent to the sale price of the housing unit he/she intends to buy. In such cases, if the value of rights falls between the sale prices of two different housing units, the person eligible for the parcelling-out sale shall have an option to choose one of those housing units;
 2. Notwithstanding subparagraph 1, if articles of association or similar expressly prescribe, housing units may be sold by parcelling-out sale in accordance with the following guidelines:
 - (a) Housing units in the standard national housing size may be sold to persons whose rights have a higher value than others' rights;
 - (b) Housing units which are larger than the standard national housing size may be sold by parcelling-out sale to persons whose rights have higher value than others' rights, and if housing units in the standard national housing size are insufficient for parcelling-out sale to the eligible persons under Articles 27 and 28, additional housing units for such shortage may be supplied to persons whose rights have higher value than other's rights;
 3. If there is competition in parcelling-out sale of housing units in an identical size, such housing units shall be sold to persons whose rights have a higher value than others' rights, but if such rights have the same value, housing units shall be sold by open lot, and the specific building, floor, and unit number of each housing unit shall be determined by open lot for each size of housing units.
- (2) The commercial facilities and other ancillary welfare facilities developed as part of a housing redevelopment project or an urban environment rearrangement project shall be supplied in the following order of priority as of the base date of the management and disposal plan: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>
1. First priority: An owner of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same or similar as the specific use of a building to be sold, he/she has business registration completed (including license, permit, and reporting; the same shall apply hereafter in this paragraph), and the value of his/her rights (referring to the value excluding the sale price of a collective housing unit, if he/she has bought a collective housing unit; the same shall apply hereafter in this paragraph) is not less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale;
 2. Second priority: An owner of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same as or similar to the specific use of a building to be sold and the value of his/her rights is not less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale;
 3. Third priority: An owner of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same as or similar to the specific use of a building to be sold, he/she has business registration completed, and the value of his/her rights is less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale, but he/she has not bought a collective housing unit through the parcelling-out sale;
 4. Fourth priority: An owner of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same as or similar to the specific use of a building to be sold and the value of his/her rights is less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale, but he/she has not bought a collective housing unit through the parcelling-out sale;
 5. Fifth priority: A person who has not bought a collective housing unit through the parcelling-out sale, if the value of his/her rights is not less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale;
 6. Sixth priority: A person who has bought a collective housing unit through the parcelling-out sale, if the value of his/her rights is not less than the estimated value of a building to be sold in the minimum unit size for the parcelling-out sale.

Article 31 (Reserved Area, etc.)

- (1) In preparation for omissions of persons eligible for the sale of housing units supplied under Article 30, errors, litigation, etc., each project implementor shall secure the reserved area defined under Article 48 (3) in accordance with the following guidelines for securing the reserved area:
1. Collective housing units not exceeding one percent of all collective housing units to be sold to landowners through parcelling-out sale pursuant to Articles 48 and 50 of the Act and part of ancillary welfare facilities, including commercial facilities, may be designated as a reserved area;
 2. When a project implementor intends to designate an area as a reserved area in excess of one percent under subparagraph 1, he/she shall submit a statement of reasons therefor and evidential documents therefor to the head of the competent Gu for approval.
- (2) A reserved area under paragraph (1) shall be disposed of in accordance with the following guidelines:
1. Each project implementor shall determine persons eligible for parcelling-out sale of the reserved area according to a resolution adopted at the general meeting, except persons who have a preemptive right to purchase under Article 64 (2) of the Act or persons eligible but excluded by omission or error or persons eligible as a result of litigation;
 2. Article 29 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the sale price of a reserved area;
 3. If any remaining area is left after a reserved area is disposed of, such area shall be disposed of in accordance with Article 34.
- [This Article Wholly Amended by Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012]

Article 32 (Persons Excluded from Those Eligible for Housing Supply by Housing Environment Improvement Projects)

Persons who shall be excluded from housing supply in accordance with the proviso to subparagraph 2 of Table 2 attached in relation to Article 54 (1) of the Decree shall be landowners who own a parcel of land of less than 90 square meters. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010>

Article 33 (Lease Deposit and Rent for Housing Environment Improvement Projects)

As to the lease deposit and rent for the rental housing units within a residential environment improvement zone under subparagraph 1 (c) (2) of Table 3 attached in relation to Article 54 (2) of the Decree, the relevant provisions of Acts and subordinated statutes governing rental housing shall apply. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 34 (General Parcelling-Out Sale)

In establishing a management and disposal plan, housing units to be supplied to landowners pursuant to Article 50 (1) of the Act and building sites, except the reserved area subject to the disposition under Article 31, and buildings (hereinafter referred to as "facilities allotted in recompense for development outlay") shall be disposed of in accordance with the following guidelines: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

1. Collective housing units, among facilities allotted in recompense for development outlay, shall be sold by parcelling-out sale to the general public, as prescribed by the Rule of Housing Supply. In such cases, the supply price may be separately determined by the project implementor, taking into consideration the price determined pursuant to Article 57 of the Decree;
2. Ancillary welfare facilities for parcelling-out sale, among facilities allotted in recompense for development outlay, shall be sold at the price determined in accordance with Article 57 of the Decree, as prescribed by the Rule of Housing Supply: Provided, That if tenants (referring to tenants who have continued their business since earlier than three months before the day on which it is publicly announced that public inspection is made available for the designation of a rearrangement zone until the day on which they vacate due to authorization for the implementation of the project) wish to purchase a housing unit, housing units shall be sold preferentially to such tenants in the following order of priority:
 - (a) First priority: A tenant of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same as or similar to the specific use of a building to be sold and he/she has engaged in a business registration with business registration thereof completed;
 - (b) Second priority: A tenant of a pre-existing building, if the specific use of the pre-existing building is the same as or similar to the specific use of a building to be sold and he/she has engaged in a business therein;
3. Notwithstanding subparagraphs 1 and 2, if a person who owns a house demolished as a consequence of an urban planning project in a new town district (limited to a person who does not own any house other than the demolished house) wishes to buy a housing unit in a rearrangement zone in the neighborhood, the head of the competent Gu shall supply a housing unit specially to such a person pursuant to Article 19 (2) of the Rule on Housing Supply.

Article 35 (Persons Eligible for Supply of Rental Housing Units of Housing Redevelopment Projects, etc.)

(1) "Persons specified by City/Do Ordinance" in subparagraph 2 (a) (4) of Table 3 attached and related to Article 54 (2) of the Decree mean the following persons. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012; Ordinance No. 5701, May 14, 2014>

1. A tenant who is the head of a houseless household and has resided in the rearrangement zone continuously since earlier than three months before the day on which the availability of public inspection is publicly announced for the designation of a rearrangement zone under Article 11 of the Decree (referring to the day on which it is publicly announced that public inspection is made available for the change of the project implementation method, if the project implementation method is changed) (or since earlier than the filing date of an application for authorization for the implementation of the project, in cases of a beneficiary defined under subparagraph 2 of Article 2 of the National Basic Living Security Act), based on the date recorded in the resident registration card for each household, until the day on which he/she moves out due to authorization for the implementation of the project (or moves out with permission from the head of the competent Gu, if a building is demolished pursuant to Article 48-2 (2) of the Act): Provided, That tenants who reside in a new unauthorized building shall be excluded herefrom;
2. A landowner eligible for the supply of a housing unit in the rearrangement zone but relinquishes his/her right to file an application for parcelling-out sale (limited to a person who does not own any housing unit other than a housing unit to be demolished);
3. A university student from a low-income household selected with recommendation from the head (president or dean) of the relevant university (limited to the relevant zone in which the construction of rental housing units is planned pursuant to Article 8 (2) 2);
4. A tenant who meets the occupancy eligibility under subparagraph 1 from among those who reside in a housing redevelopment zone other than the relevant rearrangement zone or a landowner, etc. who meets the occupancy eligibility under subparagraph 2;
5. The owner of a house demolished due to an urban planning project (excluding a rearrangement project under this Act) implemented in the neighborhood of the rearrangement zone or the head of a houseless household who resides in such a house, who is selected by the Mayor with recommendation by the head of the competent Gu;
6. Other persons specified by Municipal Rules.

(2) The guidelines for the judgement on households eligible for the supply under paragraph (1) 1 are as follows: <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 5007, Jul. 15, 2010; Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012>

1. A household comprised of husband and wife or lineal ascendants or descendants on the resident registration card for the household since earlier than three months before the day on which the availability of public inspection is publicly announced for the designation of a rearrangement zone until they move into a rental housing unit. A household where a divorced mother shares residence with her lineal ascendants or descendants shall be included in such cases;

2. A household that is designated by the head of the competent Gu as a household headed by a minor with two or more family members recorded on the resident registration card for the household;

3. A household comprised of only two or more siblings recorded on the resident registration card for the household. In such cases, the head of the household shall be a person who is at least 30 years of age or whose income meets the criteria under Article 4 of the Income Tax Act;

4. If a household does not have a spouse or a lineal ascendant or descendant recorded on the resident registration card for the household since more than three months before the day on which the availability of public inspection is publicly announced (or the day on which a decision on the project plan is publicly notified with regard to a rearrangement zone designated on or before June 30, 1996 or the day on which the availability of public inspection is publicly announced for a change in the project implementation method, if there is a change in the project implementation method) until the household moves out, the head of the household shall be eligible for rental housing, only if he/she is at least 30 years of age or his/her income meets the criteria under Article 4 of the Income Tax Act: Provided, That residents who share residence with a householder but who are recorded as a separate household on the resident registration card shall not be eligible for rental housing, and only one rental housing unit shall be supplied, if there are several households recorded on a resident registration card as residents in one and the same house.

(3) The rental housing units of a housing redevelopment project under subparagraph 2 (b) of Table 3 attached and related to Article 54 (2) of the Decree shall be supplied in the following order of priority:

1. First priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 1;

2. Second priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 2;

3. Third priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 3;

4. Fourth priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 4;

5. Fifth priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 5;

6. Sixth priority: Persons under paragraph (1) 6.

(4) The rental housing units under paragraphs (1) 3 and (3) 3 shall be supplied to students recommended by the head (president or dean) of each relevant university in the following order of priority only for the period of attendance: <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5237, Jan. 5, 2012>

1. First priority: University students discharged from a children welfare facility;

2. Second priority: University students who are children of a beneficiary of basic living care;

3. Third priority: University students who are children from the secondary needy class.

(5) If two or more persons with an equal priority under paragraph (3) compete with one another, a rental housing unit shall be supplied to the person who has resided in the relevant rearrangement zone for the longest period. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

Article 36 (Rental Housing and Housing Supply through Urban Environment Rearrangement Projects, etc.)

Articles 21 (1), 22, 23, 27, 29 (1) and (2), 30, 31, and 33 through 35 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the rental housing and housing supply through urban environment rearrangement projects. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009; Ordinance No. 4949, Mar. 2, 2010; Ordinance No. 5348, Jul. 30, 2012>

Article 37 (Public Notice of Completion of Construction Works)

The head of the competent Gu shall, upon receipt of a notice of approval that the Korea National Housing Corporation or other project implementor has given in its discretion pursuant to the proviso to Article 55 (1) of the Decree, give public notice of the matters under the subparagraphs of Article 55 (2) of the Decree through the official bulletin of the autonomous Gu. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4824, Jul. 30, 2009>

CHAPTER IV BEARING OF COSTS AND EXPENSES, ETC.

Article 38 (Subsidization for Costs and Expenses for Rearranged Infrastructure, etc.)
