CHAPTER IV CITIZENS' HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCATES

Article 18 (Establishment)

CHAPTER IV CITIZENS' HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCATES(2) The Mayor shall create citizens' human rights advocates (hereinafter referred to "advocates") to protect and enhance citizens' human rights.

(2) Advocates shall not exceed five local public officials in contractual service, who are appointed by the Mayor from among the following persons, through open recruitment:

1. A person with experience in human rights-related affairs who has served as a public official of Grade IV or higher in a State agency or local government;
2. A person who has expert knowledge in the human rights sector and has held office at college;
3. A person who has expert knowledge or work experience in the human rights sector and has been recommended by a non-profit private organization or corporation relating to human rights.

Article 19 (Term of Office and Independence of Duties)

(1) Each advocate shall serve a two-year term and may be reappointed.

(2) Each advocate shall carry out affairs under his/her authority independently.

(3) No advocate shall be dismissed from his/her office against his/her will, except in any of the following cases:

1. Where he/she violates any service obligation;
2. Where he/she is convicted of a criminal case;
3. Where a reason arises for which he/she is no longer able to perform his/her duties as an advocate.

(4) No advocate shall concurrently take any office other than the office of advocate, unless the Mayor recognizes that he/she does not have any difficulty in performing his/her duties and thus, approves his/her holding concurrent offices.

Article 20 (Duties)

(1) Advocates may investigate a human rights infringement upon application, etc. for consultation received by the human rights center, or which occurs in connection with affairs of any of the following institutions commissioned by the Mayor or by the Committee:

1. The City or an administrative agency under its jurisdiction;
2. An autonomous Gu (limited to the affairs delegated by the City);
3. An institution established by investments or contributions by the City;
4. An institution to which affairs have been entrusted by the City (limited to the affairs entrusted by the City);
5. Various welfare facilities subsidized by the City.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in any of the following cases where investigation by advocates is deemed inappropriate, advocates may not perform their duties:

1. Where the person himself/herself obviously does not want investigation an application for which has been filed by a third party other than the person who has suffered a human rights infringement;
2. Where the trial by a court, investigation by an investigation agency, or remedy procedures or conciliation procedures for an infringement of rights prescribed in the statutes are pending or have been terminated with respect to a fact causing an application for investigation;
3. Where an application for investigation has been filed without obvious reasons, based on false information, or clearly for a purpose other than the protection of human rights.

(3) Advocates may request the human rights center to support business necessary for fulfilling their duties, perform acts, such as on-site investigations, inspection of documents and gathering of samples, at any institution referred to in each subparagraph of paragraph (1) in order to collect information or materials, or require a person subject to investigation to make a report, to submit materials, or to be present to make a statement.

(4) If deemed necessary for investigation into matters within their duties, advocates may have an executive officer, employee, expert, etc. of a non-profit organization or corporation participate as investigation personnel, and may provide allowances, etc. to persons participating in investigation, within budgetary limits.

(5) Advocates may attend a meeting of the Committee and recommend necessary matters to improve the City's policies on human rights.

Article 21 (Notification of Investigation Results and Reply)

(1) Each advocate who finishes an investigation shall notify, without delay, the Mayor of the results thereof and recommendations for City administration in writing, and the Mayor, in turn, shall notify them to the relevant applicant for consultation or the heads of the Committee and an institution subject to investigation in writing.

(2) Upon receipt of the notification on recommendations for city administration under paragraph (1), the head of the institution subject to investigation shall respect any recommendation to take appropriate measures, and notify the Mayor of the results of the measures taken within two months after receipt of such notification.

Article 22 (Enforcement Rule)

Matters necessary for the enforcement of this Ordinance shall be determined by the Rules of the Seoul Metropolitan Government.

ADDENDA <Ordinance No. 5367, Sep. 28, 2012>
