Article 1 (Purpose)

The purpose of this Ordinance is to provide opportunities for the private sector to participate in public administration voluntarily and to improve the efficiency in public administration through the simplification of administrative work by providing for administrative work with which a legal entity, organization, or agency or private individual who belongs to such legal entity or organization may be entrusted pursuant to Article 104 of the Local Autonomy Act, among administrative work under the authority of the Mayor of the Seoul Metropolitan Government. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4588, Dec. 26, 2007; Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 2 (Definitions)

Terms used in this Ordinance shall be defined as follows:

1. "Entrustment to the private sector" means the entrustment of part of administrative work of the Mayor of the Seoul Metropolitan Government (hereinafter referred to as the "Mayor") under various Acts, subordinates, ordinances, and rules to legal entities, organizations, and agencies and private individuals who belong to a legal entity or an organization to authorize them to exercise the entrusted authority in their names and under their responsibilities; <Amended by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>
2. "Entrusted agency" means a legal entity, organization, or agency or private individual who belongs to a legal entity or organization, to whom the Mayor's authority is entrusted; <Amended by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>
3. "Entrusted work" means administrative work entrusted to a legal entity, organization, or agency or private individual who belongs to a legal entity or organization, among administrative work under the authority of the Mayor. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 3 (Scope of Application)

Except as otherwise provided for specifically in any other Act, subordinate statute, or ordinance, entrusted work shall be governed by this Ordinance. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 4 (Guidelines, etc. for Administrative Work Entrusted to Private Sector)

(1) The Mayor may entrust the private sector with the following administrative work that does not directly affect citizens' rights and obligations, such as surveys, inspections, tests, and management, among administrative work within the remit of the Mayor under an Act, subordinate statute, or ordinance:

1. Administrative operation that constitutes a factual act;
2. Administrative work that demands significant efficiency;
3. Administrative work that demands special expertise or technology;
4. Other simple work for administrative management, such as the management of facilities. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>

(2) Where the Mayor intends to entrust the private sector with administrative work under any subparagraph of paragraph (1), he/she shall examine needs for, the validity of, the entrustment and other relevant factors and shall bring the case to the Committee for the Operation and Evaluation of the Entrustment to the Private Sector under Article 5. <Amended by Ordinance No. 4818, Jul. 30, 2009>

Article 5 (Committee for Operation and Evaluation of Entrustment to Private Sector)

(1) The Mayor shall establish the Committee for the Operation and Evaluation of the Entrustment to the Private Sector (hereinafter referred to as the "Operational Committee") in order to have the Operational Committee deliberate on the selection of administrative work that may be entrusted to the private sector and the evaluation of the status of operation.

(2) The Operational Committee shall be comprised of not more than 11 members, including public officials of the Seoul Metropolitan Government (hereinafter referred to as the "Metropolitan Government"), Members of the Metropolitan Council, and experts specializing in the entrustment to the private sector. In such cases, a majority of the committee members shall consist of those who are not public officials of the Metropolitan Government.

(3) The term of office for committee members shall be two years but may be renewed consecutively, while the term of office for a committee member filling a vacancy shall correspond to the remaining term for his/her predecessor: Provided, That the term of office for a committee member who is a public official shall coincide with the term of service in his/her position.

(4) The committee chairperson shall be elected by and from among committee members.

(5) A meeting of the Operational Committee shall be duly formed with the attendance of a majority of incumbent members and shall adopt a resolution by a concurrent vote of a majority of members present at the meeting.

(5) The Operational Committee may establish and operate subcommittees, if necessary for carrying out its duties efficiently.

(7) Committee members who attend a meeting of the Operational Committee may be reimbursed activity costs, allowances, travel expenses, and other expenses within budget: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to a committee member who is a public official and attends a meeting in direct connection with his/her duties.
