CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 (Purpose)

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS The purpose of this Ordinance is to provide for basic matters of the Seoul Metropolitan Government policies designed to promote gender equality by eliminating discrimination on the ground of gender, enhancing women's rights and interests, and expanding their social participation in all political, economic, social, and cultural areas in accordance with the Framework Act on Gender Equality and other statutes relating to women. <Amended by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016>

Article 1-2 (Definitions)

The terms used in this Ordinance shall be defined as follows:

1. The term "gender equality" means eliminating discrimination on the ground of gender and ensuring equal participation and treatment in all areas such as politics, economy, society, and culture;
2. The term "sexual harassment" means a case where any employee, employer, or worker of a State agency, local government, or public organization prescribed by Presidential Decree (hereinafter referred to as "State agency, etc.") commits any of the following acts in terms of duties, employment and other relations:
 - (a) Making the other party feel sexual humiliation or aversion with verbal or physical behavior of a sexual nature, sexual demand, etc., utilizing his/her position or in relation with his/her duties, etc.;
 - (b) Expressing his/her intention to put the other party at a disadvantage on grounds of not complying with any verbal or physical behavior of a sexual nature or other demands or to grant the other party any benefit on condition of complying therewith;
3. The term "gender mainstreaming" means achieving gender equality in overall city administration, taking into consideration gender difference and characteristics in areas such as Acts and subordinate statutes, policies, budgets, and systems.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016]

Article 2 (Seoul Government's Responsibilities)

The Seoul Metropolitan Government (hereinafter referred to as the "Seoul Government") shall implement necessary policies and prepare financial resources for promoting gender equality, and fulfill its duties prescribed in the Framework Act on Gender Equality (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") and other statutes relating to women. <Amended by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016>

Article 3 (Citizens' Rights and Responsibilities)

- (1) All citizens shall have the rights to receive gender-equal treatment in all political, economic, social, and cultural matters.
- (2) All citizens shall actively cooperate with the Seoul Government in formulating and implementing its policies on gender equality.

Article 4 (Relationship with other Municipal Ordinances)

Where other municipal ordinances concerning gender equality are enacted or amended, they shall satisfy the purpose of this Ordinance.

CHAPTER II IMPLEMENTATION PLANS AND PROMOTION SYSTEM FOR GENDER EQUALITY POLICIES

Article 5 (Formulation of Implementation Plans for Gender Equality Policies)

CHAPTER II IMPLEMENTATION PLANS AND PROMOTION SYSTEM FOR GENDER EQUALITY POLICIES(1) The Mayor of the Seoul Metropolitan Government (hereinafter referred to as the "Mayor") shall formulate and enforce implementation plans for gender equality policies for each year (hereinafter referred to as "implementation plans") based on the master plan for gender equality policies referred to in Article 7 of the Act. <Amended by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016>

(2) Each implementation plan shall contain the following matters: <Amended by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016>

1. Basic direction and goals for gender equality policies;
2. Tasks and methods to promote gender equality policies;
3. Direction for securing and managing financial resources related to the promotion of gender equality policies;

Article 14 (Affirmative Actions)

The Mayor, the heads of affiliated institutions of the Seoul Government (referring to affiliated administrative institutions of the Seoul Government referred to in Articles 113 through 116 of the Local Autonomy Act and the Secretariat of the Seoul Metropolitan Council referred to in Article 90 of the Local Autonomy Act; hereinafter referred to as "affiliated institutions") and City-invested institutions (referring to public enterprises established under the Local Public Enterprises Act, which have invested at least 50% of capital at market value) may take affirmative action, as prescribed by relevant statutes, to facilitate women's participation in fields in which female participation is clearly lacking, thus accomplishing substantial gender equality.

Article 15 (Expansion of Participation in City Administration)

(1) Where the Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions establish and operate various committees, etc. to make policy decisions, they shall ensure that any particular gender does not exceed 6/10 of the number of commissioned members pursuant to the main sentence of Article 21 (2) of the Framework Act on Gender Equality, and the Committee may recommend the observance thereof: Provided, That the same shall not apply where any inevitable ground, such as lack of professional workforce of a particular gender in the relevant field, is deemed to exist and thus the Working Committee on Gender Equality adopts a resolution thereon pursuant to the proviso to the same paragraph. <Amended by Ordinance No. 6851, Mar. 22, 2018>

(2) Where the proportion referred to in paragraph (1) is not observed, the ground thereof shall be reported to the Committee.

(3) The Mayor shall increase female public officials' participation in meetings, councils, etc. comprised of and operated by relevant public officials.

Article 16 (Promotion of Participation in Public Service, etc.)

(1) The Mayor shall enforce the employment quota system for gender equality under Article 51-2 of the Decree on the Appointment of Local Public Officials for the open competitive examination for appointment of public officials in order to provide both men and women with equal opportunities to participate in public service.

(2) Matters necessary for enforcing the employment quota system for gender equality referred to in paragraph (1) shall be separately determined by the Mayor.

(3) Where the Mayor gives public notification of the employment of public officials for a field in which the employment ratio for women is considerably low, he/she shall affirm that women are encouraged to apply for a relevant examination.

(4) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall continually endeavor to ensure that more women are recruited and employed in their organizations.

(5) The Mayor shall promote reeducation and provide reeducation programs to enhance female public officials' aptitudes.

(6) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall ensure that more women can enter into a higher position by providing employees under their management with equal opportunities in position management, promotion, rewards, education, training, etc.

Article 17 (Promotion of Participation in Economic Activities)

(1) The Mayor shall establish the following policies to facilitate women's participation in economic activities:

1. Activating women's employment, business start-up and participation in enterprise activities, and women resources development;
2. Establishing gender equality in overall employment, including workers' recruitment, employment, education and training, promotion, retirement, career development, salaries, etc.;
3. Taking special protective measures for women in pregnancy, childbirth, or lactating, and preventing disadvantageous treatment on such grounds;
4. Preventing women's career interruptions and promoting reemployment thereof under the Act on Promotion of Economic Activities of Career-Interrupted Women, Etc.;
5. Prohibiting unreasonable discrimination against fixed-term and part-time female workers and improving the employment environment.

(2) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions shall facilitate the purchase of goods produced by female-owned businesses under Articles 9 and 10 of the Act on Support for Female-Owned Businesses, and give preferential treatment to such businesses when they subsidize enterprises.

Article 18 (Support for Work-Family Balance)

The Mayor shall formulate the following policies to ensure that men and women can achieve balance between their social and family lives:

1. Ensuring the public nature of child care by increasing child care facilities for infants and by strengthening various child care services;
2. Endeavoring to expand workplace child care facilities;
3. Revitalizing after-school child care;
4. Establishing a child care leave system and securing alternative human resources;
5. Encouraging and activating child care leave for men;
6. Providing consultation and services on work-family balance;
7. Disseminating the family-friendly system referred to in subparagraph 3 of Article 2 of the Act on the Promotion of Creation of Family-Friendly Social Environment;
8. Other matters necessary to accomplish work-family balance.

Article 19 (Equal Family Life)

(1) The Mayor shall establish policies necessary for equal family life pursuant to Article 5 of the Framework Act on Healthy Families.

(2) The Mayor shall offer necessary assistance so that various types of families, such as single-parent family, family with a disabled person, and multi-cultural family, can enjoy equality in life without being discriminated against.

Article 19-2 (Gender Sensitive Education)

(1) The Mayor shall endeavor to provide public officials under his/her jurisdiction, etc. with education to increase their ability to recognize impacts of statutes, policies, customs, all types of systems, etc. on men and women in all areas of society (hereinafter referred to as "gender sensitive education").

(2) The Mayor may entrust gender sensitive education to a professional agency referred to in Article 18 of the Act and Article 14 of the Enforcement Decree of the same Act.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 6319, Sep. 29, 2016]

Article 20 (Raising Awareness and Creating Culture of Gender Equality)

(1) The Mayor shall implement and support relevant projects so that education on gender equality can be smoothly carried out in families, schools, child care facilities for infants, social education facilities, and enterprises.

(2) The Mayor shall ensure that educational courses of at least two weeks will include a subject on the raising of gender equality awareness, and shall organize and operate specialized educational courses designed to enhance female public officials' aptitudes at least semiannually.

(3) The heads of diverse social educational facilities established by the Seoul Government shall organize and operate educational courses designed to raise awareness of gender equality.

Article 21 (Prohibition, etc. of Gender Discrimination and Sexual Harassment)

(1) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall establish an equal city administration culture by prohibiting and preventing gender discrimination and sexual harassment in documents, meetings, types of work, etc.

(2) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall take preventive action, such as providing education at least annually, to prevent gender discrimination and sexual harassment cases.

(3) The Mayor shall operate a desk for receiving and handling gender discrimination and sexual harassment cases at work against public officials, etc. who work at the Seoul Government and affiliated institutions.

(4) Where a gender discrimination or sexual harassment case arises, the Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall take appropriate measures for the relevant person(s).

(5) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall take action to prevent discrimination against, dismissal of, or other disadvantageous treatment of gender discrimination and sexual harassment victims.

Article 22 (Prevention, etc. of Domestic Violence, Sexual Violence, and Sexual Trafficking Crimes)

(1) The Mayor shall endeavor to establish necessary policies to prevent domestic violence, sexual violence, and sexual trafficking crimes and to protect victims thereof.

(2) The Mayor and the heads of affiliated institutions and City-invested institutions shall conduct preventive education in order to prevent domestic violence, sexual violence, and sexual trafficking crimes.

(3) The Mayor shall support education, job training, etc. for victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, and sexual trafficking so that they can live independently.

(4) The Mayor shall formulate necessary policies to educate and rehabilitate assailants or offenders, as prescribed by relevant statutes.
