Article 12 (Detailed Criteria for Permission to Occupy and Use Greenbelts)

Criteria for permission to occupy and use land in green areas under Article 38 of the Act shall be as follows: <Amended on Jul. 15, 2010; Oct. 8, 2015; Mar. 28, 2019>

1. The criteria referred to in Article 10 (1) 1 through 3, 5, and 6 shall be met;

2. An access road crossing a green area pursuant to subparagraph 3 of Article 43 of the Decree:

(a) Where a person intends to occupy and use a green area to use as a road, a green area management agency shall not permit such occupation and use: Provided, That this shall not apply to cases falling under item (b);

(b) Where the inside road has already been determined by urban planning, it shall be limited to a period until the road is open;

(c) In principle, an access road shall not exceed eight meters in width in principle; however, where a wider road is required, a greenbelt management agency shall give permission to occupy and use it as a road (referring to a road under the National Land Planning and Utilization Act and the Private Road Act) pursuant to subparagraph 3 of Article 22 of the Decree;

(d) The shortest distance between access roads crossing a green area on the roadside shall be at least 250 meters: Provided, That this shall not apply to cases where it is necessary to separate an entrance and exit because it is unavoidable in local circumstances or required for smooth traffic flow;

(e) A greenbelt management agency shall not permit an access road in a greenbelt on the side of a motorcar road or detour: Provided, That this shall not apply to cases where its necessity is recognized because the opening of an access road does not hinder the function of a greenbelt and remarkably decreases surrounding traffic congestion, and a greenbelt management agency has consulted about the access road with a road management agency;

(f) Where it is inevitable to permanently use a road built under the proviso to item (e), a greenbelt management agency shall permit to occupy and use it as a road pursuant to subparagraph 3 of Article 22 of the Decree;

(g) Where a green area management agency intends to give permission to occupy and use a greenbelt on the side of the railroad, it shall consult with the manager of a railroad protection zone pursuant to Article 63 of the Enforcement Decree of the Railroad Safety Act;

(h) In cases of a greenbelt on the side of an industrial complex, a green area management agency shall permit to build an urban planning road according to a street network in the industrial complex and shall not permit an access road by individual factory;

(i) Where land, the land category of which according to the Cadastral Act is a site becomes the land with no sides abutting on the public way owing to determination of a green area, a green area management agency shall give permission to occupy and use after planning the inside road in consideration of local conditions of the land or give permission to occupy and use it as a road pursuant to subparagraph 3 of Article 22 of the Decree;

3. In cases of a storage yard of construction equipment and materials pursuant to subparagraphs 5 and 6 of Article 43 of the Decree, where a green area management agency implements construction works of green area and construction of facilities which cause placement of the relevant green area (a road, railroad, etc.), and it is inevitable to build a temporary building for construction in a green area not yet created, it shall manage the same as a temporary building pursuant to Article 15 (5) 3 of the Enforcement Decree of the Building Act.

[This Article Wholly Amended on Jan. 8, 2009]

Article 13 (Period of Permission to Occupy and Use)

(1) Where a park management agency or green area management agency issues a permit to occupy and use a park or green area, the period of permission to occupy and use shall be determined in consideration of occupying and using facilities, an implementation period of a park and green area creation project, etc.; and where no period of permission to occupy and use is prescribed, it shall not exceed three years. <Amended on Mar. 25, 2021>

(2) A period for existence of a temporary building in the short-term or temporary structure in the short-term built for a sports event, assembly, exhibition, exposition, performance referred to in subparagraph 10 of attached Table 1 to Article 23 of the Decree shall be as follows:

1. Not more than two months in cases of a sports event or assembly;

2. Not more than one year in cases of an exhibition, exposition, or performance.

(3) Where a person who has obtained a permit to occupy and use a park or green area intends to obtain the extension of the period of occupation and use after the relevant period of occupation and use expires, he or she shall apply for the extension thereof to a park management agency or green area management agency at least 30 days before the period expires. In such cases, a park management agency or green area management agency may extend the period within the extent that the extension of the period of occupation and use does not hinder the management and operation of the relevant park or green area facilities. <Amended on Jul. 15, 2010; May 18, 2017>

[This Article Wholly Amended on Jan. 8, 2009]

Article 14 (Management of Objects Occupied and Used)

(1) Where a park management agency or green area management agency issues a permit to occupy and use a park or green area, it shall ascertain whether the details of such permit is properly implemented and, if necessary, may request a person permitted to occupy and use to make a boundary survey.

(2) Where a park management agency or green area management agency issues a permit to occupy and use a park or green area, it shall prepare and manage the management book of permits to occupy and use in which the purpose of occupation and use, a period of a permit to occupy and use, the area and objects occupied and used, etc, are mentioned.

Article 17 (Fees for Occupation and Use)

A person who obtains a permit to occupy and use a park or green area (hereinafter referred to as "occupant") shall pay a fee for occupation and use referred to in attached Table 3.

[This Article Wholly Amended on Jan. 8, 2009]

Article 18 (Standards for Calculation of Fees and Payment Methods)

(1) A fee for admission or fee for occupation and use shall be paid on a notice for payment issued by a park management agency or green area management agency or by method of purchasing an admission ticket: Provided, That a fee to use video recording, photography, or a playground among the fees to use park facilities may be paid by means of revenue stamp meter of a park management agency or green area management agency, credit cards, or with electronic currency and electronic settlement of accounts making use of information and communication network. <Amended on Apr. 22, 2010; Aug. 1, 2013>

(2) In principle, a rental fee of park facilities pursuant to Article 16 shall be calculated in the total amount of the period of entrustment; and where it is necessary to calculate in installments, it shall be calculated according to the following subparagraphs:

1. On a yearly basis: the yearly amount $\times$ the number of years entrusted;
2. On a monthly basis: the yearly amount $\times$ the number of months entrusted / 12;
3. On a daily basis: the yearly amount $\times$ the number of days entrusted / 365.

(3) A fee for occupation and use pursuant to Article 17 shall be calculated and imposed as a yearly amount each year. In such cases, where the period of occupation and use is less than one year, a fee for occupation and use shall be calculated according to the following subparagraphs:

1. On a monthly basis: the yearly amount $\times$ the number of months occupied and used / 12;
2. On a daily basis: the yearly amount $\times$ the number of days occupied and used / 365.

(4) Payment methods of a rental fee and fee for occupation and use shall be as follows:

1. Where the period of management entrustment and occupation and use does not exceed one year, when a park management agency or green area management agency entrusts the management or issues a permit to occupy and use (hereafter in this paragraph referred to as "permission"), the amount calculated at the time of permission regarded as the base date of calculation shall be paid in full before the date of commencement of occupation and use;
2. Where the period of management entrustment and occupation and use exceeds one year, the amount for one year from the date of permission shall be paid before the date of commencement of occupation and use, and the amount for the following year thereafter shall be paid within 30 days from the date falling under the first date of commencement of occupation and use every year.

Article 19 (Refund of Fees)

(1) An admission fee or user fee paid in advance may be refunded, and where any cancellation is made by a user, the user fee paid shall be returned according to the following categories: <Amended on Mar. 25, 2021>

1. Where such cancellation is made due to a natural disaster, force majeure event, or any other reason beyond the relevant facility's control: Refund in full amount;
2. Where such cancellation is made seven days prior to the scheduled date of use or on the day of use: Refund in full amount;
3. Where such cancellation is made six days to three days prior to the scheduled date of use: Refund the remaining amount after deducting 10/100 of the relevant user fee;
4. Where such cancellation is made two days to one day prior to the scheduled date of use: Refund the remaining amount after deducting 30/100 of the relevant user fee;
5. Where such cancellation is made on or after the use date: Refund shall not be made.

(2) In cases falling under any of the following subparagraphs within the period permitted for use and making profits and the period permitted for occupation and use, rental fees or fees for occupation and use already paid may be fully or partially refunded:

<Amended on Jan. 7, 2016>

1. Where a natural disaster occurs or the Mayor cancels permission or changes details of permission according to the necessity for public interest;
2. Where the refund is deemed inevitable because the area of actual occupation and use of a park is much less than the area permitted to be occupied and used or there are errors in the calculation of a rental fee or fee for occupation and use.

(3) Except as provided for in this Ordinance, matters shall be prescribed by rule of the Seoul Metropolitan Government. <Newly Inserted on Mar. 25, 2021>

Matters determined by ordinance referred to in Article 12-2 (2) of the Act are as follows:

1. A contract for use of a site for the urban park (hereinafter referred to as "contract for use of a park site") shall include land area subject to the contract for use of the park site (including its address, owner, area, and land category);
2. The initial term covered under the contract for use of a park site shall be less than three years, and the following shall apply to the expiration and renewal of the contract:
 - (a) The relevant landowner and park management agency shall notify the park management agency and the landowner, respectively, of whether the contract is expired or renewed by no later than May 31 of the year preceding the expiration date;
 - (b) Upon receipt of a notice under item (a), the landowner or the park management agency shall notify whether the contract is to be expired or renewed within 30 days from the date of receipt;
 - (c) Where no notice is given under item (a), the contract shall be renewed for the same period as that of the preceding contract period from the day following the expiration date: Provided, That the method agreed by a landowner and a park management agency shall be applied;
 - (d) The alteration of a contract shall be made by the agreement between the parties to the contract at the request of either of the landowner or the park management agency;
3. Article 71 of the Act on Acquisition of and Compensation for Land for Public Works Projects shall apply mutatis mutandis to the method of calculating site usage fees: Provided, That if the contracting parties have agreed on a different method of calculating a site usage fee, the method agreed upon shall apply;
4. The park management agency shall pay a site usage fee pursuant to the contract for use of the park site at the request of the landowner:
 - (a) The landowner shall request the payment of the site usage fee on a yearly basis (the calculation of the period of a contract for less than one year shall be the period of such contract) from the date the relevant contract is concluded;
 - (b) The park management agency shall, in principle, deposit cash into the bank account designated by the landowner within 30 days from the date of receipt of the claim for payment;
 - (c) The timing and methods of paying the site usage fee pursuant to items (a) and (b) may be adjusted by a consultation between the land owner and the park management agency;
5. Park facilities at a site for the contract for use of the park site shall be established and managed by the park management agency; Provided, That the method agreed upon by a landowner and a park management agency shall be applied, if agreed;
6. A change in the contract for use of a park site may be made under an agreement between the landowner and the park management agency, and the termination of the contract or the change of the contract period shall meet the standards of subparagraph 2;
7. Where a party to a contract for use of a park site violates the contract terms and conditions, the other party may take the following measures:
 - (a) The other contracting party shall request the contracting party to execute the contract within one month;
 - (b) If the breach of the contract continues, although the other contracting party has requested a contracting party to duly execute the contract twice or more, the former may terminate the contract on the ground of such breach of contract;
 - (c) Expenses incurred pursuant to item (b) shall be borne by the party who has violated the contract;
8. Where any right, other than the purpose of use or profit-making, is established on the relevant site, a contract for use of a park site shall be made with the consent of the relevant holder of such right;
9. Where it does not impede the establishment of the urban park and does not disturb the public use of the urban park, the park management agency may allow the landowner to use his or her land subject to the contract for use of a park site before the establishment of the urban park;
10. Other methods and contents of a contract for use of a park site shall be prescribed by rule of the Seoul Government.
