CHAPTER III DESIGNATION AND OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS AND SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS

Article 11 (Designation and Operation of Promotion Districts)

CHAPTER III DESIGNATION AND OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS AND SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS

(1) The Mayor may designate an area as a promotion district and operate it directly or authorize the competent head of a Gu to operate it in order to invite and nurture a strategic industry or nurture a high-tech industry through the rearrangement of an area in which industries are densely concentrated.

(2) The invigoration of the regional economy shall be promoted by inviting and nurturing recommended types of business with mainly industrial functions in each industrial development promotion district under paragraph (1) and by inviting and nurturing recommended types of business with mainly non-industrial functions in each specific development promotion district.

(3) When it is intended to designate and operate an area as a promotion district pursuant to paragraph (1), any of the following areas shall be designated as such a district, but the detailed criteria for, and the size of, such an area and the recommended types of business shall be prescribed by rule of the Seoul Government:

1. An area in which the number of workers engaging in a recommended type of business or the growth rate meets or exceeds the prescribed levels;
2. An area in which the ratio of factory sites meets or exceeds the prescribed levels;
3. Any other area if the Mayor recognizes that it needs to invite and nurture a strategic industry particularly.

(4) The head of a Gu may file an application with the Mayor for selecting an area that meets the basic requirements under paragraph (3) as one eligible for the designation of a promotion district.

(5) When the head of a Gu intends to file an application under paragraph (4), he or she shall submit an application containing descriptions of the following matters:

1. The location and size of the eligible area;
2. The recommended types of business;
3. An analysis of the current status of the eligible area;
4. Whether the selection requirements are met;
5. A plan for nurturing the industry when the area is designated as the promotion district;
6. Other matters specified by rule of the Seoul Government.

(6) When the Mayor intends to select an area as one eligible for the designation directly or upon an application from the head of a Gu pursuant to paragraph (4), he or she shall bring the case to the Committee for Deliberation on Promotion Districts under Article 14 for deliberation. The same shall apply to an intended change in a designated promotion district.

[This Article Wholly Amended on May 29, 2008]

Article 12 (Establishment of Promotion Plan)

(1) The head of a Gu shall establish a promotion plan containing descriptions of the following matters, when the Mayor designate an area as a promotion district pursuant to Article 11: <Amended on Mar. 28, 2013>

1. The current status of the eligible area and the recommended type of business;
2. A plan for the designation and management of facilities for the recommended type of business;
3. A plan for assisting the owners and operators of facilities for the recommended type of business;
4. A plan for the implementation of projects in connection with the relevant district unit plan, development plan, and other plans;
5. A plan for securing financial resources for the nurturing and management of the promotion district;
6. Expected problems and solutions on the nurturing and management of the promotion district;
7. Other matters necessary for the management of the promotion district.

(2) When the Mayor or the head of a Gu collects residents' opinions to establish a promotion plan under paragraph (1), he or she shall give public notice of the following matters through the official bulletin and website and shall make relevant documents available to the general public for inspection for at least 14 days:

1. Main points of the proposed promotion plan;
2. The date, time, and place of inspection.

(3) When the head of a Gu establishes a promotion plan under paragraph (1), he or she shall obtain approval from the Mayor within one year from the day on which the promotion district is designated, unless there are exceptional circumstances.

(4) When the Mayor intends to finalize or approve a promotion plan under paragraph (1), he or she shall bring the plan to the Committee for Deliberation on Promotion Districts under Article 14 for deliberation.

(5) When the Mayor or the head of a Gu finalizes, or obtains approval of, a promotion plan under paragraph (1), he or she shall give public notice of main points thereof through the official bulletin without delay.

(6) Paragraphs (2), (4), and (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a change in the promotion plan: Provided, That such procedures may be omitted for a modification to a minor matter specified by rule of the Seoul Government.

(7) When the head of a Gu intends to change a promotion plan pursuant to paragraph (6), he or she shall obtain approval thereof from the Mayor: Provided, That a minor matter specified by rule of the Seoul Government may be modified after reporting the change to the Mayor. <Amended on Mar. 28, 2013>

(8) Each head of Gu shall conduct self-evaluation on the current status of the execution of a promotion plan finalized and publicly notified with approval from the Mayor and the results of the performance of the plan and shall submit a report on the results to the Mayor not later than the end of January the following year.

(9) The Mayor shall report the results of the execution of promotion plans for each year to the Seoul Metropolitan Council (hereinafter referred to as the "Seoul Council") by compiling the results of the evaluation on promotion plans established by the Mayor himself or herself and the results of the evaluation on promotion plans submitted by autonomous Gus pursuant to paragraph (8).

(10) If a promotion district designated pursuant to Article 11 (1) falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Mayor may cancel its designation. In such cases, the cancellation shall be subject to deliberation by the Committee for Deliberation on Promotion Districts under Article 14:

1. Where it fails to obtain approval of its promotion plan without any exceptional excuse within one year from the day on which the promotion district is designated;
2. Where designating the promotion district is found ineffective as a result of the evaluation on the actual state of the performance of the promotion plan;
3. Where the Mayor concludes that it is necessary to cancel designation of the promotion district on any other ground.

[This Article Wholly Amended on May 29, 2008]

Article 13 (Assisting Promotion Districts)

(1) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may supply infrastructures to a promotion district, preferentially over other areas, in order to develop a more competitive geographical location for a recommended type of business.

(2) The Mayor may relax the building-to-land ratio, the floor area ratio, the maximum height in a specific use area by the relevant district unit plan, when he or she designates a promotion district as a district unit plan zone pursuant to Article 46 of the Enforcement Decree of the Act, regarding facilities planned for the recommended type of business in the promotion district in order to effectively enhance functions of the promotion district: Provided, That the foregoing shall differentially apply to a building for combined uses only if the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business constitutes at least 20 percent of the gross floor area of the building pursuant to the following classifications: <Amended on Mar. 28, 2013>

1. Where the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business account for at least 50 percent of the gross floor area of the building: Within 120 percent of the relevant criteria;
2. Where the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business account for at least 40 percent but less than 50 percent of the gross floor area of the building: Within 115 percent of the relevant criteria;
3. Where the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business account for at least 30 percent but less than 40 percent of the gross floor area of the building: Within 110 percent of the relevant criteria;
4. Where the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business account for at least 20 percent but less than 30 percent of the gross floor area of the building: Within 105 percent of the relevant criteria.

(3) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may exempt real estate acquired or used for a recommended type of business in a promotion district, from local taxes. In such cases, matters concerning the exemption shall be governed by the Seoul Metropolitan Government Ordinance on Tax Reduction or Exemption and the competent autonomous Gu Ordinance on Gu tax reduction or exemption. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2020>

(4) The Mayor may lend funds from the Small and Medium Business Support Fund to small and medium enterprises that run a recommended type of business in a promotion district. In such cases, matters concerning the loans shall be governed by the Seoul Metropolitan Government Ordinance on the Establishment and Operation of Small and Medium Enterprise Support Fund and by the Enforcement Rule of the same Ordinance. <Amended on Jul. 17, 2014>

(5) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may provide more favorable support additionally to an enterprise that can play a leading role in contributing to invigorating a promotion district or a foreign-invested enterprise established in a promotion district, than other enterprises in the promotion district.

(6) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may render assistance in establishing and operating facilities for supporting enterprises in a promotion district, planning and operating support programs, and other necessary matters, in order to invigorate the promotion district. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2019>

(7) If an area is excluded from a promotion district due to a change in the promotion district boundary under Article 11 (6) or the designation of a promotion district is canceled under Article 12 (10), support and assistance under paragraphs (1) through (6) shall be discontinued: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to any support and assistance provided before the Mayor decides to exclude an area from a promotion district or to cancel the designation. <Amended on Mar. 28, 2013>
