(f) Other industrial facilities specified in the promotion plan for each promotional district;

11. "Industry-academy-institute collaboration system" means a support system for linking activities of the Metropolitan Government, Gus, enterprises, institutions assisting enterprises, universities, and research institutes in the City or for facilitating mutual cooperation among them in order to enhance capabilities of regional innovation and to develop business conditions for industrial development. <Newly Inserted by Ordinance No. 4631, May 29, 2008>

Article 3 (Scope of Application)

Except as otherwise provided for specifically in any relevant Act or subordinate statute or any other Ordinance, the selection and nurturing, and the assistance to, strategic industries, the assistance to enterprises, and industry-academy-institute collaboration shall be governed by this Ordinance.

Article 4 (Mayor's Responsibility)

The Mayor shall implement policies on the selection and nurturing of strategic industries and the systematic assistance to enterprises in order to upgrade the structure of regional industries in the City and to enhance enterprises' competitiveness.

CHAPTER SELECTION AND NURTURING OF, AND ASSISTANCE TO, STRATEGIC INDUSTRIES

Article 5 (Selection of Strategic Industries)

CHAPTER SELECTION AND NURTURING OF, AND ASSISTANCE TO, STRATEGIC INDUSTRIES(1) The Mayor shall select the industries that satisfy the following requirements in accordance with the regional innovation and development plan:

1. The industries with high growth potential and contributiveness to economic growth;
2. The industries that can play a pivotal role in regional innovation;
3. The industries with strong intensiveness of technology and knowledge and advantage in geographical location.

(2) The strategic industries under paragraph (1) shall be selected through deliberation by the Regional Innovation Council of the Metropolitan Government under Article 28 (1) of the Special Act on Balanced National Development.

Article 6 (Establishment of Comprehensive Support Plan)

Mayor shall establish and implement a comprehensive support plan in order to nurture and assist the strategic industries under Article 5 systematically.

Article 7 (Preferential Supply of Infrastructure, etc.)

(1) If an eligible enterprise in a strategic industry (hereinafter referred to as "eligible enterprise") intends to establish its head office or a business office in the City, the Mayor may supply infrastructure for the eligible enterprise, prior to other industries, by opening roads necessary for the improvement of conditions of its location and rearranging outdoor space in the vicinity of the enterprise (hereinafter referred to as "infrastructure facilities").

(2) The Mayor may establish and implement a comprehensive support plan for the supply of infrastructure facilities to an eligible enterprise that intends to make a large investment with a high effect of creating jobs for employment.

Article 8 (Assistance in Marketing)

The Mayor may give eligible enterprises preferential opportunities to participate in presentation sessions for inviting foreign investment and various marketing programs implemented by the Metropolitan Government in order to assist them in the management of strategic industries and may subsidize them for rents and other expenses necessary for such events fully or partially within budget.

Article 9 (Subsidization for Development of Technology)

The Mayor may fully or partially subsidize eligible enterprises for funds necessary for the development of technology within budget in order to improve technical strength of strategic industries.

Article 10 (Award of Seoul Enterprise Grand Prize)

(1) The Mayor shall select an eligible enterprise that he/she recognizes as one that has significantly contributed to the economic invigoration of the City and the creation of jobs for employment and award the Seoul Enterprise Grand Prize to the enterprise.

(2) The Mayor may partially or fully subsidize an enterprise awarded the Seoul Enterprise Grand Prize pursuant to paragraph (1) for a fund necessary for the development of the enterprise, marketing or the development of technology, within budget.

CHAPTER DESIGNATION, OPERATION, ETC. OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS AND SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS

Article 11 (Designation, Operation, etc. of Promotional Districts)

CHAPTER DESIGNATION, OPERATION, ETC. OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS AND SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT PROMOTION DISTRICTS(1) The Mayor may designate an area as a promotional district and operate it directly or authorize the competent head of a Gu to operate it in order to invite and nurture a strategic industry or nurture a high-tech industry through the rearrangement of an area in which industries are densely concentrated.

(2) The invigoration of the regional economy shall be promoted by inviting and nurturing recommended types of business with mainly industrial functions in each industrial development promotion district under paragraph (1) and by inviting and nurturing recommended types of business with mainly non-industrial functions in each specific development promotion district.

(3) When it is intended to designate and operate an area as a promotional district pursuant to paragraph (1), any of the following areas shall be designated as such a district, but the detailed criteria for, and the size of, such an area and the recommended types of business shall be prescribed by Rule:

1. An area in which the number of workers engaged in a recommended type of business or the growth rate meets or exceeds the prescribed levels;
2. An area in which the ratio of factory sites meets or exceeds the prescribed levels;
3. Any other area if the Mayor recognizes that it needs to invite and nurture a strategic industry particularly.

(4) The head of a Gu may file an application with the Mayor for selecting an area that meets the basic requirements under paragraph (3) as one eligible for the designation of a promotional district.

(5) The head of a Gu shall, when he/she intends to file an application under paragraph (4), submit an application containing descriptions of the following matters:

1. The location and size of the eligible area;
2. The recommended types of business;
3. An analysis of the current status of the eligible area;
4. Whether the selection requirements are met;
5. A plan for nurturing the industry when the area is designated as the promotional district;
6. Other matters specified by Rule.

(6) When the Mayor intends to select an area as one eligible for the designation upon an application from the head of a Gu pursuant to paragraph (4), he/she shall bring the case to the Committee for the Deliberation on Promotional Districts under Article 14 for deliberation. The same shall apply to an intended change in a designated promotional district.

Article 12 (Establishment of Promotion Plan, etc.)

(1) The Mayor or a head of a Gu shall establish a promotion plan containing descriptions of the following matters, when the Mayor intends to designate and operate an area as a promotional district pursuant to Article 11 or when the head of a Gu intends to file an application for the designation of an area to operate it as a promotional district:

1. The current status of the eligible area and the recommended type of business;
2. A plan for the designation and management of facilities for the recommended type of business;
3. A plan for assisting the owners and operators of facilities for the recommended type of business;
4. A plan for the implementation of projects in connection with the relevant district unit plan, development plan, and other plans;
5. A plan for securing financial resources for the nurturing and management of the promotional district;
7. Other matters necessary for the management of the promotional district.

(2) The Mayor or the head of a Gu shall, when he/she collects residents' opinions in order to establish a promotion plan under paragraph (1), give public notice of the following matters through the official bulletin and web-site and shall make relevant documents available to the general public for inspection for at least 14 days:

1. Main points of the proposed promotion plan;
 2. The date, time, and place of inspection.
 - (3) The head of a Gu shall, when he/she establishes a promotion plan under paragraph (1), obtain approval from the Mayor within one year from the day on which the promotional district is designated, unless there are exceptional circumstances.
 - (4) The Mayor shall, when he/she intends to finalize or approve a promotion plan under paragraph (1), bring the plan to the Committee for the Deliberation on Promotional Districts under Article 14 for deliberation.
 - (5) The Mayor or the head of a Gu shall, when he/she finalizes, or obtains approval of, a promotion plan under paragraph (1), give public notice of main points thereof through the official bulletin without delay.
 - (6) Paragraphs (2), (4), and (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a change in the promotion plan: Provided, That such procedures may be omitted for a modification to a minor matter specified by Rule.
 - (7) The head of a Gu shall, when he/she intends to change a promotion plan pursuant to paragraph (6), obtain approval thereof from the Mayor: Provided, That a minor matter specified by Rule may be modified after reporting the change to the Mayor.
 - (8) Each head of Gu shall conduct self-evaluation on the current status of the execution of a promotion plan finalized and publicly notified with approval from the Mayor and the results of the performance of the plan and shall submit a report on the results to the Mayor not later than the end of January the following year.
 - (9) The Mayor shall report the results of the execution of promotion plans for each year to the Seoul Metropolitan Council (hereinafter referred to as the "Metropolitan Council") by putting together the results of the evaluation on promotion plans established by the Mayor himself/herself and the results of the evaluation on promotion plans submitted by Gus pursuant to paragraph (8).
 - (10) If a promotional district designated pursuant to Article 11 (1) falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Mayor may cancel its designation. In such cases, the cancellation shall be subject to deliberation by the Committee for the Deliberation on Promotional Districts under Article 14:
 1. Where it fails to obtain approval of its promotion plan without any exceptional excuse within one year from the day on which the promotional district is designated;
 2. Where designating the promotional district is found ineffective as a result of the evaluation on the actual state of the performance of the promotion plan;
 3. Where the Mayor concludes that it is necessary to cancel designation of the promotional district on any other ground.
- [This Article Wholly Amended by Ordinance No. 4631, May 29, 2008]

Article 13 (Assistance to Promotional Districts)

- (1) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may supply infrastructure facilities to a promotional district, prior to other areas, in order to develop more competitive conditions of geographical location for a recommended type of business.
 - (2) The Mayor may relax the building-to-land ratio, the floor area ratio, the maximum height in a specific use area by the relevant district unit plan, when he/she designates a promotional district as Class-I district unit plan zone pursuant to Article 46 of the Enforcement Decree of the Act with respect to facilities planned for the recommended type of business in the promotional district in order to enhance functions of the promotional district: Provided, That the foregoing shall apply to a building for combined purposes of use only if the area of the facilities planned for a recommended type of business constitutes 50 percent or more of the gross floor area of the building.
 - (3) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may exempt real estate acquired or used for a recommended type of business in a promotional district from local taxes. In such cases, matters concerning the exemption shall be governed by the Seoul Metropolitan Government Ordinance on Tax Reduction or Exemption and the competent Gu Ordinance on Gu Tax Reduction or Exemption.
 - (4) The Mayor may lend loans from the Small and Medium Business Support Fund to small and medium businesses that run a recommended type of business in a promotional district. In such cases, matters concerning the loans shall be governed by the Seoul Metropolitan Government Ordinance on the Establishment and Operation of Small and Medium Business Support Fund and the Enforcement Rule of the aforesaid Ordinance.
 - (5) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may provide more favorable support additionally to an enterprise that can play a leading role in contributing to the invigoration of a promotional district or a foreign-invested enterprise established in a promotional district, than other enterprises in the promotional district.
 - (6) The Mayor or the head of a Gu may render assistance in the establishment and operation of facilities for supporting enterprises in a promotional district, the planning and operation of supportive programs, and other necessary matters in order to invigorate the promotional district.
 - (7) If an area is excluded from a promotional district due to a change in the promotional district under Article 11 (6) or the designation of a promotional district is cancelled pursuant to Article 12 (10), the support and assistance under paragraphs (1) through (6) shall be discontinued: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to support and assistance provided before the Mayor decides to exclude an area from a promotional district or to cancel the designation.
- [This Article Wholly Amended by Ordinance No. 4631, May 29, 2008]

Article 14 (Organization and Operation of Committee for Deliberation on Industrial and Specific Development Promotion)
